Thinks He'll Get It.

Bro. Walton says "a glance at the map" shows the Southern could build a shorter line by running through Stanford. This don't scare us, brother, the railroad people will never find a map with Stanford on it.

To Rockcastle Springs.

Prof. Clay Green and his band of musicians left Monday morning for Rockcastle Springs to furnish music for the merry party now at that famous resort. He took four men and the band is prepared to make first rate music.

Be Sure It's Yours.

It may not be generally known that persons who from carelessness or any other cause take mail from the post-office that belongs to another and fail to return the same, are liable to a fine of $200 or one year's imprisonment. This applies to newspapers thus taken as well as other mail matter.

Nevius.

Mrs. Jacob Nevius, whose serious illness was noted in our Bryansville letter last week, died Sunday afternoon. She had been ill for sometime, suffering from paralysis. She was 63 years old, a devoted church member, and was highly esteemed by all. Mrs. Nevius was a sister of Adjt. Gen. D. R. Collier, and had many relatives in Garrard and adjoining counties. Funeral services were held at the family residence Monday afternoon and the remains interred at Pleasant Grove.

See ad for Lexington fair.

Elegant Piques at Joseph's.

Very few blackberries have been brought in. They are very scarce.

Shall strangers be kept from our little town by the disgraceful conduct of probably half a dozen idle boys?

In some locations stock is being driven three miles to water. It will take a week's down-pour to start the springs and creeks.

The season is getting late, and we will close out many lines at cost to clean up. Come and see.

J. JOSEPH.

500 Candle Power.

A strong arc light, 500 candle power is in Gaines & Paulson's Grocery store. It makes everything attractive and lights the people to the place for the best bargains.

Taxes Due.

Town taxes are now due, and property owners should come forward at once and settle. This has to be done and those putting it off too long will be put to extra expense.

E. M. WALKER, Collector.

Right You Are.

The best curfew ordinance is one that is adopted in each family, where the old man acts as mayor and city council, night watch and calaboose keeper; where fine and punishment go together and where a good hickory stick is more to be feared than so much lolly-pops.—Jessamine Journal.

Camp Dick Farm Sold.

Mrs. Julia Shannon, of Fort Worth, Texas, sold to ex-congressman Montgomery, of Elizabethtown, the famous old Camp Dick Robinson farm. This is one of the best farms in Garrard county, and a very desirable place every way. The price paid was $62.68 per acre. It is now occupied by Len Hudson.

Will Have a Beauty.

Mr. R. E. McRoberts will get the new store room adjoining National Bank. This is his old stand and Mr. M. intends fitting it up in the very latest style. Handsome cases and bottles will be put in, and everything arranged in the very best and most complete way. Mr. McRoberts enjoys a fine trade and is determined to keep abreast of the times.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Spring chickens for sale, 9 and 10c per pound, cash. H. B. Northcott.

New line belt buckles and fancy goods this week.

Thompson the Jeweler.

Stamp your checks before sending to banks. Parties so fortunate as to have a bank account ought to buy a stamped check book.

Iron and bones. Farmers bring in old machinery, good price paid.

Wheat—Wheat.

We are in the market for 100,000 bushels of wheat, and will pay top prices for it, cash on delivery. Call and see us before selling.

H. A. B. MARKSBURY & SON.

Cremery Foot Power Churns.

I have twenty-five of these celebrated churns which will be sold at $5. each. Original price was $7.50. They are the best made and this is a rare chance to get a bargain.

MRS. J. I. HAMILTON.

Property Sold.

Judge J. C. Hemphill has bought of Irvine Miller, colored, the house and lot on Richmond street adjoining T. W. Reid. The judge will soon erect a handsome dwelling thereon. It is one of the prettiest building lots in town. He would not state price paid.

Pull Together.

The prosperity of a town is not aided by the wealth of its inhabitants, remarks the Nicholasville Journal, but by the unanimity with which they pull together. In union there is strength. In all forms of advancement success only is achieved by the superlative degree by concerted action.

Notice.

Not having the time to collect them, I have left my accounts in the hands of E. Brown for collection. All those indebted will please call at his office, the Police Court room and settle at once and save cost. W. H. Lackey, by E. Brown, agent.

Has Given Great Satisfaction.

Dr. Goldstein has been kept so busy that he has been compelled to remain a few days longer to wait on those desiring his services as an eye specialist. For years he has been coming to Lancaster to supply the people of this city and county with glasses, and not an instance can be cited where he failed to give satisfaction. If your eyes need treating, see him at once.

Farmers' Attention.

Storage furnished for wheat. See R. G. Ward for particulars. Lancaster Mills & Elevator Co.

If anyone will make the necessary proof before Judge Brown, he will certainly make the pistol shooters smoke. He's a splendid judge and does his duty to the letter.

One of the many flying bullets struck a plate glass window in Storms' store Saturday night, smashing the glass. The refined, educated, industrious young gentleman who did it will, of course (?) pay the damages.

Please Sign Your Name.

A newsy letter from Cartersville was signed in a manner that did not reveal the author. Once again we must take space to say that no unsigned communication can be published. We want the name only to know the reports are genuine, not for publication.

A Booming Town.

Lancaster is a booming town, but not a boom town. Six store rooms, a hotel, an opera house and ten new residences are being built.—Lexington Herald. Right you are, brother. Don't speak of us as a "boom town." It will cause a stampede. Lancaster has had her eye-teeth cut on boom towns.

Hard Row to Hoe.

The City Council held a called meeting Monday afternoon to talk about the pistol shooting. They discussed, cussed, re-discussed and recessed the situation, but took no steps at that time. Verily the lot of a town councilman is a hard one. He has more troubles than the president of the United States.

Danville Fair.

Our hustling neighbors are preparing for the biggest and best fair ever held in Danville. With such men as Capt. Eph Lillard, J. L. Frohman and other such hustlers at its head, its safe to say the fair will be a success in every way. The dates are Aug. 30, 31 and Sept. 1. Further particulars will be given in THE RECORD.

Special Services.

Special services will be held in all the churches of the city on the first Sunday morning, of August, September, and October. The subject for united discussion will be: "The need for more faithful discharge of church duties on the part of all church members," with special reference to the proper observance of the Sabbath.

Fine Lecture.

The RECORD desires to again call attention to the lecture to be given at Court House next Wednesday evening the 26th, by Prof. H. T. Taylor, of Louisville Training School. Subject "The Heart of Cuba," illustrated by fine views thrown upon a large canvass. Admission only 25 and 15 cents. Tickets at McRoberts.

Wait for It.

The Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12, is the most liberal organization the state has ever seen in its premiums for beef cattle. Sixteen classes are provided for and over $1000 given away to the Shorthorn breed. This is an average of nearly $100 to each class and the classes provided permit all ages and both sexes to compete.

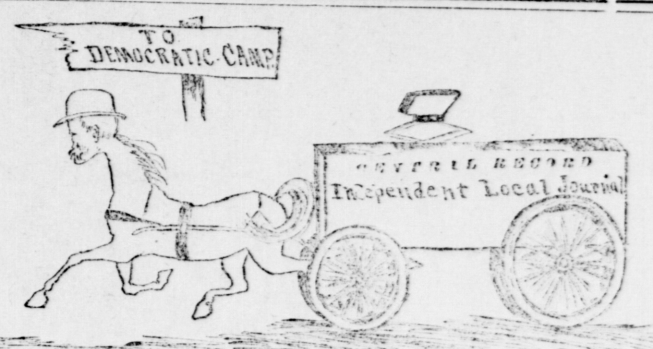

Eloped from Stanford.

Mr. E. H. Beazley, of the firm of Beazley Bros., liverymen, of Stanford, and Miss Kathleen Grinstead, daughter of the Rev. W. S. Grinstead, of Millersburg, eloped to Jellico, Tenn., Tuesday night, where they were married. Miss Grinstead was visiting friends in Stanford. Both parties are well-known here and many Lancaster friends extend congratulations.

Fine Singing.

The music at the colored teachers institute has received many high compliments from persons competent to judge such matters. Prof. Milton Sneed selected the singers and selects the music. Mrs. William Johnston presides at the organ and plays as well as many who have received a regular musical education. A great many white people have been attending the convention to enjoy this singing.

More Recruits Wanted in Philippine. The Recruiting officer in Lexington has just received instruction from the War Department to enlist a number of white men for Infantry, Cavalry and Artillery services in the Philippines. These men will be sent to San Francisco at once to connect with Steam ship sailing the latter part of this month. Now is the chance for you to make a trip around the world. This opportunity will only last a few days and men wanting to join should apply at the Recruiting offices in Lexington Ky., or in Ashland Ky. or in Somerset Ky. at once.

In order for the editor to attend the state Press Association, it was necessary to put another of experience in the harness, and, knowing his ability, we secured Judge M. D. Hughes. Not having been in shifts for a long time, and the gear rubbing a little, he began to shy before we left town, but upon being assured of our implicit confidence in him, toned down, and we left thinking he would carry the load safely to its destination. It has been truthfully said that an old horse is the most unsafe of them all, and this case was no exception to the supposed rule. The old wheel-hoos had not gone far before he slipped the bridle, reared up and ran kicking and jumping into the camp of Democracy. When we returned we found the boxing in the wheels of THE RECORD had been ground to a white heat, the paint blistered and the Judge in a rather from the run, but aside of this the outfit is still able to make the regular weekly trips to every home in the good old county of Garrard at only $1. per year. Now is the time to subscribe.

Washerwomen have been compelled to take their work to Dix river, a distance of three miles.

Big Times at Nich. Nicholasville will have a Street Fair and, according to the Journal, it will be the biggest thing on wheels.

Ring Up 100. And phone your orders to Gaines & Paulson's new grocery store and get the best, fresh groceries, at the lowest market price. Their motto is "prompt delivery and the best goods for the least money."

Big Timber Shipment. Siler & Co., shipped to New York several car loads of the finest walnut logs ever cut in Garrard. They will be shipped from New York to Germany. Walnut timber is getting to be exceedingly scarce and brings handsome figures.

Likes the Judge. A good democrat suggests that editor Louis Landram devote his attention to press associations and the like until after the November election, thus giving Judge M. D. Hughes a good show to carry Garrard for Goebel and the rest of the ticket.—Stanford Journal.

A Rare Opportunity. Dr. Goldstein, the celebrated oculist, arrived Sunday and is at the Hamilton House. These needless glasses should take advantage of this opportunity of consulting one of the very best specialists in this country. Consultation and examination free. Dr. Goldstein will only be here for a few days.

Holton Succeeding. H. O. Frank writes from Poplar Plains, Ky., under date of July 6:—"Our meeting at Plummer's Landing, which began on the 19th of June, closed last Sunday night, July 2, with 16 additions to the church, 15 confessions and one reclaimed. Great interest was manifested. The house would not accommodate the crowds."

A Paint Lick Enterprise. Adams' Fistula Salve, put up by Adams & Fish, Paint Lick, is meeting with ready sale every where. Persons who have used it say it's a marked success and a sure cure for Fistula, Pilevils, Swinney, Scratches, Enlargement, Greasy Heel, etc. It is sold on a written guarantee, and money refunded if not as represented. ap-12

They'll Bear Watching. Keep an eye on the man who "wants above all to treat everybody right," and the old maid who "wouldn't have the best man alive," and the small boy when he refuses pie at supper, and the widow who "lives only for the sake of the children and to keep his grave green," and keep both eyes on the fellow "who never told a lie when he hacked a cherry tree—Winchester Democrat.

Rockcastle Springs. This famous old resort is enjoying a splendid season, and there are now seventy-five guests there. The fare is superb and all appointments complete to the smallest detail. Herbert Hornmel, formerly of this city, is manager, and his old Garrard county friends will receive a cordial welcome. Write for a circular and you will see the rates are very reasonable. Why not take a little rest at this lovely retreat. It

Preserving Colored Boy. One of the most deserving colored boys in Lancaster is Ad McDonald, who now has charge of the electric light plant. When the plant was put in, he knew nothing whatever of electricity, but by giving his undivided attention to the business, not only learned to operate the dynamo, of which he now has charge, but can, and does run the large steam engine which drives the machinery. A boy who will buckle down like this is entitled to all encouragement.

A RECRUITING OFFICER is endeavoring to enlist men in Clay county to send to the Philippines. Wouldn't it be a better idea to bring the Philippines and turn them loose in Clay county?

THE secular papers are discussing the actual cost of Solomon's Temple and are wasting much valuable time thereon. But this is the way most "religious" leaders spend their time, discussing mouse-track questions instead of striving to save souls.

MUCH is being written of the "Kissing Bug." It is claimed the "bug" alights upon the lips of pretty girls and does not release its hold until choked loose. The "kiss" leaves a stinging sore and sometimes causes pain. If the girls would compel the "bugs" to quit using whisky and cigars, no harm would come from the bites.

The republican convention held at Lexington last week was largely attended and quite enthusiastic. Everything passed off quietly and the following ticket was nominated: For Governor, W. S. Taylor, of Butler Co.; For Lieutenant-Governor, John Marshall, of Louisville; For Secretary of State, Caleb Hovers, of Knox Co.; For Attorney-General, Clifton J. Pratt, of Hopkins Co.; For Auditor, Rev. John S. Sweeney, of Bourbon Co.; For Treasurer, Walter R. Day, of Breathitt Co.; For Superintendent of Public Instruction, John Burke, of Campbell Co.; For Commissioner of Agriculture, Capt. J. W. Throckmorton, of Payette Co.

LAKE CHAUTAQUA, N. Y.

DEAR EDITOR AND FRIENDS:

We had dreamed of Chautauqua many times, but the real Chautauqua, as it burst upon us some days ago, was a revelation. Twenty years ago the region about Lake Chautauqua was little known. At that time a site was selected on the Lake where camp meetings were held regularly every year in August. Those who have read "Four Girls at Chautauqua" can realize how these little meetings grew and how thoroughly they met a great need. In those pioneer days Indians were still lurking about the vicinity, and many a French evangelist traveled through the wilderness with pistol in one pocket and Testament in the other. The French Presbyterians were the first to awaken religious interest among the natives. A little later came the Methodists. Strange to say they were looked upon by the Presbyterian workers with holy horror, and were regarded not as helpers but as intruders, iconoclasts. A story is told to illustrate this:

Mrs. McCord, looking from her kitchen one day, noticed that the cows were wildly racing across the field with heads and tails tossing angrily in the air. She called her husband's attention to it, and he, noticing that they were fleeing from the forest, said impressively, "Jennie, it's them Methodists. They're holding camp meeting in the woods." Since then, the Methodists have proved their title right royally, and Bishop Vincent is now, as in the beginning, the great spirit of Chautauqua.

The size of the assembly grounds may be indicated by the fact that there are over five hundred cottages and public buildings, parks, tennis courts, and an immense amphitheater, seating 10,000 people. The College of Liberal Arts opens its doors this week, to a large number of students of all ages. The little five-year-old tot talks sagely of taking "Nature Study" and having time also for gymnastics, while the gray-haired revere their youth by the sensation of being once more in college. Many a luckless youth, who has failed in some college study, drifts into this parlor of peace to "make up" the failure and meanwhile enjoys base ball, golf, tennis, boating and swimming.

For those who are not studying, the public lectures, the daily devotional hour, the Epworth league and Christian Endeavor meetings, Missionary conference, afternoon concerts, evening entertainments, and even the rehearsals of the great choir tempt and tantalize the alert person until he wishes he had as many heads as the Centipede has feet, in order to store away all the good things. Beautiful Chautauqua, the Mecca of thousands, what wonder that "Mother Chautauqua," as she is familiarly called, has a constantly increasing family? It is estimated that last year more than fifty thousand people were in attendance and the indications point to a greater increase this year. Picturesque in location, cosmopolitan in spirit, Chautauqua is the ideal summer resort. With best wishes,
CARRIE WOODS,
Panama Cottage, Lake Chautauqua, New York.

HENDERSON, KY.

A Wide-Awake, Hustling, Up-to-date City, Where All Pull Together.

The subject of this sketch has always been a point we have had a desire to visit, and last week presented our first opportunity. Henderson is located on the banks of the Ohio, about 150 miles below Louisville. It is a city of probably 10,000 people, and for push and enterprise far surpasses many cities of twice its size. We always looked upon the place as being a big, overgrown town, like the average in this section of Uncle Sam's domain, but in this we were sadly mistaken. There are twenty to thirty manufacturing establishments located there, the largest of which has a regular monthly payroll of eight hundred hands the year round. This latter establishment is the Henderson Cotton Mills. It runs the year round and we were told has a big lot of orders ahead all the time. The raw material is brought by river from the south, and many boatsloads are required. The plant is fitted with the latest improved machinery, and is pronounced the best in the south. Our delegation was shown through the plant, and it took nearly all one morning to make the trip.

The Henderson Brewing Co's establishment did the proper thing by the boys, showing them through the entire plant, and serving an elegant lunch. Those who partook of the liquid refreshments said the beer was the finest they ever tasted, and it must have been true, as an employee showed us where the product was sent every day to all points in the south.

A delegation of Henderson's citizens met every incoming train, and every press boy was shown to the hotel with as much style as if he had been the Prince of Wales. One of our meetings was held in the immense park, a lovely retreat in the centre of town. Asphalt walks, pretty trees, a big fountain and many other attractions, go to make this park one of which the citizens may justly feel proud. One striking feature of the city is the broad streets, every one of which is one hundred feet from curb to curb. All kinds of manufacturing is carried on in Henderson, and several thousand employees spend their wages with the merchants every Saturday night. These men all have families who occupy all the tenement houses, and spend a vast amount of money in the town, in fact, spend all they make right there. Some dozen elevators almost scrape the cob-webs off the sky, and whole sale and retail stores flourish in abundance. We were so agreeably surprised at the number of enterprises that we undertook to learn how the city got so many them.

It was not a difficult task to learn that it was accomplished simply by the people all pulling together and working for the town. You can find no people there who think only of their own selfish hides, and who throw cold water on every enterprise proposed simply because they can not see where their own private ends will be benefited. They hustle for the town, and are willing to go down into their pockets and hand out the cash to help secure any thing that will benefit the town. Those who have money put it up when they see it will benefit the town, and do not sit and watch a few little old dollars like a cat watching a rat hole. In other words, they do not squeeze a dollar 'til the eagle is suffocated and are willing to pay according to their means for any improvement suggested. Another capital point is the fact that they are not prejudiced among themselves, and when anything is to be done they do not run to see what some would-be "leader" is going to do before they take a stand. The miser is an unknown animal in Henderson, and men there sleep at night and do not lie awake studying how to slip their little old money through the pearly gates, or heaven. They do the very best they can for the town and have the far-sightedness to see that every improvement made for the town will, in the end, prove a blessing to them. If they hear of a factory looking for a location, they go after it, and do not wait and see if Hon. Hayseed Kronickeikendores the move, or if Col. Windbag Objectall is opposed to it. In fact no men by that name or character live there. If a railroad heads that way, it immediately given the right-of-way, all the ground they want and any other demand the company sees proper to make. As a result they have four different systems of road.

Socially, they are among the best people we ever met. They do everything for the comfort of guests, and are never so happy as when looking after the wants of strangers.

Taken as a whole, it would be hard to find a better town; either socially, morally or in a business way. Money seems to be plentiful, and it changes hands. They are not infested with any sharks who bury money as soon as they get hold of it, but the coin is kept in circulation. Every editor present was loud in expressing his delight at the welcome extended us, and it is safe to say the boys will go there again the first opportunity.

HAS NATURE WARNED YOU?
Nature herself elid in the early garbs of spring, blossoms forth trees and flowers causing the dependent chord to vibrate to the most delightful of all spectacles and how do you feel? Have you that tired shaky feeling, the fore-runner of Chills, Malaria and Typhoid Fever? If so, you must not pass this warning as it is an indication of sickness; avoid this counsel as our advice costs you nothing. Call on your druggist and procure a bottle of Dr. Carter's German Liver Powder. Take one dose a day at bed time for six days; then follow by procuring a bottle of Yucca Chilli Tonic, following the directions and after two weeks' course of these two great remedies, you will feel like the flowers look in the spring. Prepare yourself for the malarial or hot season, when the atmosphere is full of germs. If necessary and when your system warns you repeat the above. These Remedies in stock and sold by

Excursion to Old Point Comfort Va.
The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. has arranged a series of Excursions to Old Point Comfort Va., during the month of July, August and September. These Excursions will be run on the Second and Fourth Tuesdays in each month. The tickets will be good on the regular trains, and will be limited to 21 days. The rate will be $15.00 for the round trip. Persons desiring to go should send in their names for sleeping car space, and state on which train they will want to go. Any information cheerfully furnished on application to any Agent, or to G. W. Barney, Div. Pass. Agent, Lexington, Ky.

Hymn Books.
The Baptist church has just purchased a large lot of handsome song books, which they have had The Record office to label. This reminds us that we recently visited a certain house in Lancaster and saw four song books lying on the piano, each bearing the name of some local church. People take these books from the churches unthoughtfully and never return them. If they would stop and consider the work it takes to raise money to buy them, the books would be returned. Those who are thoughtful and honest will return all song books next Sunday morning. Now, watch and see who brings them. Some people doubtless have so many they will be ashamed to lug in the load.

We Want 'Em.
While at the Press Association last week, we spoke to a great many of the editors in regard to holding their next meeting in Lancaster. They seemed to take to the idea and we were much encouraged at the prospect. R. Lee Davis was also hustling for Richmond, and some one suggested that the editors meet at Richmond, remain a day and night, and then come and spend the same length of time in Lancaster. This latter suggestion seemed to suit all better, and we believe it can be arranged. We have many things to show the boys if they will make us a visit and know the time spent in the two towns will be made pleasant. The meeting does not take place until next summer and its most too long off to talk about.

Organize by all Means.
"I have about concluded," remarked Capt. Herndon, to The Record, "to organize a 'Good Times Society,' any member of which shall be pledged to preach the gospel of good times, good fellowship, peace and plenty, to promote good feeling among neighbors and to bring about harmony generally. Adequate penalties will be provided against all who growl or stir up strife, and suitable rewards for those who carry sunshine always with them; and to him who tries to make at least one soul happy each day, every member will be required to lift his hat. He who inflicts causeless pain will be tabooed. At our meetings we will discuss nothing but that which makes happy those present or absent, and no effort will be made to find out anything but good of any one. The Society will be incorporated, so that it will have endless succession and do good forever."

The Railroad.
EDITOR RECORD—How many citizens of the county of Garrard have considered the importance of another railroad and the benefits it would derive from it? For example, let's look at the wheat we raise. With another railroad, like the proposed one, it would open the market South, and the rates would enable you to get from three to five cents per bushel more for your wheat than dealers can afford to pay now. The value of your cattle, hogs, sheep, all kinds of grain, hemp, etc., as well as your farming lands, will be enhanced in value very materially on account of the facilities for delivering your products. The item of coal, in which we are all more or less interested, we could save two or three cents per bushel on every bushel and numerous other articles could be bought at a much less price than now. From calculations on the above, should we get this road would result in benefits from same to the farmers and citizens of the county of over $150,000 each year. Every farmer in the county should be especially interested in procuring the right-of-way for this road and render all the assistance he possibly can. Talk for it and work for it; it will be money in your pockets. Let us not miss such a favorable opportunity as the present one to increase the value of our land and the price of our products. PROGRESS.

Glorious News
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, liver, kidneys, and powels' expels, poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. sold by R. E. McRoberts Druggist, Guaranteed

Wanted—Water.

The City Council advertised for bids on waterworks and the time named for opening the proposals is next Saturday morning. We do not know how many bids have been made, but it is safe to say the Council will then know near what the system will cost. The only drawback our town now has is the scarcity of water. We only have about one cistern to every two dwellings, and not more than ten or twelve are located between the first alley and Square. These are all small, and right now there is barely enough water in all to fill one. The tax levied by waterworks will not be more than twenty-five cents, and the insurance companies have agreed to reduce their rates 33%. In this, property owners will make a big saving, and as property owners do the paying, it seems their wishes should be given preference in the matter. Of course there is objection to the proposition, like there has been to every other improvement we have gotten, but judging from the lengthy petition which has been presented to the Council, we do not see how they can well get around the matter.

The advertisement states positively that the city reserves the right to buy the system in five, ten or twenty years, which clause is a good one. After the system has been put in, and our people realize its advantages, we do not believe there would be a vote cast against the town buying it. This has been the experience everywhere else, and we would be no exception to the rule. It does seem that the large amount of handsome, costly property now being erected should be given some protection from fire. Lancaster has suffered more from fire than has any town its size in Kentucky. In nearly every case where we had a big fire, the flames were discovered in ample time to have been extinguished had we had any facilities. If the money required in rebuilding could have been put to other improvements, we would now have the best town in the state.

This matter should be weighed well before steps are taken, and we hope the Council will ponder deep and long before dropping the subject.

Cheap Excursion to Old Point Comfort.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad will run its second Excursion from Lexington to Old Point Comfort, Va., on Tuesday July 25th. Tickets will be $15.00 for the round trip, good going on both morning and evening regular trains, and good returning 21 days. Stop overs will be granted at any station east of Kanawha Falls on return trip. Old Point Comfort offers more attractions this year than ever before.

Discovered by a Woman.
Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes w. c. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottle free at R. E. McRoberts Drug Store.

Col. E. C. Hopper, secretary of Lantonia race course, was here a short time last week to see his sister, Miss Jane, and brother, John. Ed was looking as fine as a two-year-old and was warmly greeted by many old friends.

A telephone from Mr. Jas. S. McKenzie, at Parksville, Boyle county, yesterday, reported Thomas Underwood some better, with a good chance of recovery. This will be glad tidings to his many friends in Nicholasville.—Journal.

Mr. W. S. Watson, an old Lancaster boy, now engaged in the drug business at Atlanta, was here a few days last week mingling with friends of his boyhood days. "Canty" is doing quite well in his southern home and has a well established business.

There are more pretty girls in Henderson than any place we ever visited. The big ball given the editors was a sight of loveliness one seldom beholds on earth. It caused the old, rheumatic editors, (ourselves among the number) to prance about like yearlings.

Lou C. Hopper has been here this week visiting his sister, Miss Jane, and brother John. Lou is a gauger in the Covington district and has an assignment which keeps him humping. He is an old Lancaster boy, and, like all others, thinks there's no place like "home."

Col. B. M. Burdett writes THE RECORD from Lexington, stating that he is now located in that city permanently, and will be over soon to see the good people of Garrard and to get his library. He says his prospects for success there are good. Mrs. Burdett will be there from Florida in a few days and will spend the summer in Richmond county with her mother.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Elkin, who have been visiting Lancaster relatives, left Monday morning for the lakes, where they will spend some weeks before returning to their home in Atlanta. Their visit here was greatly enjoyed by a large circle of admiring friends. Simp is one of the foremost physicians of the south, and is a Lancaster boy of whom all our citizens are justly proud.

About the most enjoyable social function given in Lancaster recently was the house-party of Misses Julia Mae and Nannie Gaines. The young ladies composing the party were Misses Anna Swift Long, of Winchester, Agatha Long, of Georgetown, Sadie Fogg, Lexington and Bessie Turley, Richmond. The Misses Gaines certainly proved the fact that they know how to entertain and the young people will long remember the occasion as one of genuine happiness and pleasure. Hayrides, picnics, dances and other entertainments followed upon each other with such rapidity that the entire time, as one young lady expressed it, "seemed like one sweet dream."

The picnic given at Cave Spring in honor of Miss Gaine's houseparty was one of great enjoyment to the young folks attending. A bountiful lunch was spread and the day spent in rambling about the pretty cliffs of Dix river. The following were present: Misses Fogg, Hudson, Pendleton, Long, Gaines, Carpenter, Bush, Royston, Herring, and Messrs. West, Kinnaird, Frisbie, Thompson, H. and B. Herndon, Turley, Hughes, Davidson, Herring, Walden, Embury, Marksburg, Haselden, Henry. The party was chaperoned by Mesdames Stormes and Young.

Our sanctum was never honored by a more welcome guest than when Mr. W. M. Bogle walked in upon us Saturday. Mr. B. and his charming better-half have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wherritt. Mr. Bogle's presence brought back to mind the good old days when we worked for him as "cub," and later as a telegraph operator on the L. & N. If anything in this world will provoke cuss words, a railroad man's duties will, but we never knew Mr. B. to lose his temper, and profanity was not tolerated in his office. He is a pure, christian gentleman, and we love him like a brother. Had we taken his advice and stuck to the L. & N. instead of accepting a government job, we would probably be some account today.

A charming dance was given at the Mason Hotel in honor of Miss Gaine's houseparty. Good music was furnished and the youngsters will long remember the occasion. The list of young ladies, as handed in, is as follows: Misses Annie Swift Pendleton, of Winchester, Sadie Fogg, of Lexington, Agatha Long, of Georgetown, Bessie Turley, Emily Chenault, Earl Chenault, — Hayden, Katharine Smith, of Richmond, Julia Mae and Nannie Gaines, Nellie Marrs, Amy Davidson, Florence Harris, Carrie Curry, Grace Kinnaird, Annie Loyd Herring, Bessie and Jennie Burnside, Alberta Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stormes, Messrs. Turley, Tevis, Feland, Chenault, Wagers, of Richmond, Thompson of Georgetown, Coleman Lee, London, and Burnside, Denny, Marksburg, M. and L. West, H. and B. Herndon, Kinnaird, Will Walker, Hughes, Frisbie, Haselden, Robinson, Walden and some fifteen or twenty others.

The surveying party, which has occupied quarters at the Graded School, broke camp last week and located at Brown Spring, near Crab Orchard. No party has ever visited our little city which sooner gained the esteem and respect of our citizens. They are well-bred, highly educated gentlemen and certainly conduct themselves in a manner which meets the approbation of all lovers of society. The party is composed of Messrs. Jerry and E. B. Respass, of Winston, North Carolina; W. H. Burk, G. M. Clark, of New York City; R. Obar, C. Gamble, of Tennessee, and G. W. Nelson, of Virginia. Our people did what they could to make their stay pleasant, and many regrets were expressed when leaving time came, especially from several young ladies. We all hope they young men will be given positions of locating and constructing the road through our city. Claude Wherritt, "Shorty," accepted a position with the corps and will assist in running the line to Jellico.

The Servant Question.

The Bourbon News has this to say on a question that interests nearly every household in Lancaster. The News says: "The house-keepers of Paris—as well as all other Kentucky towns—are just now having their usual summer experience with the servant question. Scores of families are without cooks or housemaids, and it seems almost impossible to keep one for more than a fortnight at a time during the summer months, as they give up their positions without notice and have money to ride in carriages to camp meetings or patronize excursions. Most of them positively refuse to work as one working servant can keep two families in victuals. These people who refuse to work in summer should be marked for reference when the Elk Charity Fund and the County Judge are giving out money and provisions in winter. It is easy for willing workers to secure employment in Paris, and those who will not work do not deserve charity in winter."

It is my specialty to fit glasses in such manner that they relieve the eyes from perfectly, fitting the eye with spectacles that you can see with ease and comfort, thus preserving the eye. In examining the eye only the latest and most improved methods and instruments are used.

Physicians especially are invited to call and investigate my methods of correcting errors of refraction. Many cases of headache, neuralgia, nervousness, irritability, insomnia, vertigo, nervous prostration and the seeming stupidity of children are often due to defective vision caused by an abnormal curvature of the cornea or crystalline lens or to an irregularity of the refracting media of the eye, and are relieved at once upon the application of the proper glasses. Ninety per cent of the people over 40 years of age need glasses and 50 per cent of the 90 need them for distance.

Glasses are not always given to improve eyesight, but to relieve undue strains; to assist nature. Thousands of eyes are ruined yearly. Seven persons out of ten have neither eyes alike and one out of twenty astigmatism; hence the necessity of testing each eye separately. Special attention is given to any inequality that may exist between the refraction of the eye.

Optical science has made many rapid advances within the last few years. The correct adaptation of spectacles has become a distinct profession. The optician who thoroughly understands his business, realizes fully that in adjusting glasses for his patients he is treating with a most delicate and precious organ where the slightest error may result seriously, while if he does his work well, he not only gives comfort and ease to his patients but in many instances restores the sight.

Special care should be taken in selecting the first pair of spectacles, nor should it be attempted without the aid of a responsible optician. It is most important that the lenses should be accurately centered and of the best quality, and the frames so made that the wearer looks directly through the center. Glasses nicely fitted to the face become an ornament as well as a necessity.

All questions in regard to the eye cheerfully answered.

MUST STAMP THEIR CHECKS

Banks Will No Longer Be Allowed To Affix Stamps For Their Customers.

Washington, July 14.—Commissioner Wilson, of the Internal Revenue Department, has issued a circular absolutely prohibiting banks from affixing stamps to checks when presented, and requiring them to return the same to the drawers. In his circular to Collectors, the Commissioner says:

You are directed to notify the banks that if they practice the stamping of checks, they will be immediately discontinued. It is reported to the United States District Attorney for prosecution.

The instruction contained in Treasury decision No. 19,696, under date of June 29, 1898, to the effect that there was no objection to the affixing by the bank of the requisite stamp to an unstamped check presented for payment is hereby revoked.

This instruction was given to meet an emergency immediately preceding the taking effect of the stamp act on July 1, 1898, in order to obviate the necessity of returning by the banks thousands of unstamped checks issued by drawers in ignorance of the law. The law being now generally understood there is no further need of such permission.

This action was taken upon information that certain banks had adopted the practice of not requiring stamps as an advertisement to secure patronage as against rival banks.

There are fewer sheep in the world to-day than there were 10 years ago, while population is increasing, and nations which have lived on vegetables are eating more meat. Mutton is growing in favor, and there is no reason for thinking there will ever be very much lowering of the present very satisfactory price.

Lung Irritation.

Is the forerunner to consumption? Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or cold will not settle there. Twenty-five cents at McRoberts Drug Store.

Beans and peas, cooked, and thickened with bran, and fed twice a week, are an excellent food for laying hens.

The losses from blight in the aggregate are very heavy, and it is the one great drawback to the free use of clover. It has long been recognized that there is little danger from blight where clover is mixed with other grasses, or where stock has access to good blue grass. It is further asserted that if a straw pile is within reach it is equally effective.

The Eagle, King of all Birds.

It is truly said that the ram is half the flock, and it is better to pay $100 for a good one than $50 for one worth half as much. If the average ram gets 30 lambs in the course of his life, it makes very little difference in the cost of each one whether the ram cost much or little, while the value imparted to the progeny is inestimable.

STATE NEWS HAPPENINGS.

BY A HIDDEN FOE.

Joshua Taylor Shot From Ambush—His Wounds May Prove Fatal—A Feud Threatens to Break Out.

PINEVILLE, Ky., July 18.—Joshua C. Taylor is a feud victim. He was shot from ambush and his wounds are thought to be fatal.

Taylor is a school teacher and a member of the family which, for years, waged a feud with the Lees—a feud that numbers in its record many deaths.

He was riding along the banks of the Picket creek, returning from his school through the woods, when a rifle shot rang out and he reeled from his horse. He was found by friends soon after, weltering in the blood that poured from murderous wounds. There is little hope for his life.

Such an incident will scarcely be passed unnoticed by the feudists, in whose breasts the flames of old differences have been smoldering for a long time.

NEGRO STATE TICKET.

Some Colored Men of Lexington, Dissatisfied With Taylor's Nomination, Will Have a Ticket of Their Own.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 15.—Some of the Negroes of Lexington are still dissatisfied with the nomination of Gen. Taylor for governor and an effort will be made by them to defeat him. A number of prominent Negroes of this city held a mass meeting Thursday afternoon with several members of the Hambrick delegation of Louisville and decided to place a Negro ticket in the field this fall.

A conference will be held in Louisville next Friday afternoon and a ticket nominated. Dr. E. E. Underwood, of Frankfort, W. H. Stewart, of Louisville, and Editor R. C. O. Benjamin, of this city, are at the head of the movement and one of three will receive the nomination for governor. They have no idea of winning but they claim that they will cause Taylor to lose colored votes.

POLITICAL MOVEMENT.

Steps Taken Looking to the Nomination of a Democratic Ticket in Opposition to the One Headed by Goebel.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 16.—At a meeting of the Jo Blackburn Democratic club Friday night steps were taken looking to the nomination of a democratic state ticket in opposition to the one headed by William Goebel for governor. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the action of the recent state convention, and appointing a committee to co-operate with dissenting democrats in other parts of the state.

Postmaster Mangled by a Train.

PADUCAH, Ky., July 15.—C. T. Hanberry, postmaster at Edgelyville, Ky., early Friday morning either fell or jumped from an Illinois Central train at a station which the train passed without stopping. He had both legs, one arm broken and skull fractured and was badly mangled in falling through a trestle. He is fatally injured. Hanberry was returning from the state convention at Lexington. He has a family.

Congratulates But One.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 17.—Gov. Bradley is said to have wired congratulations to but one of the nominees of the convention. This was to Elder John Steele Sweeney, of Bourbon, the candidate for auditor, for whom he has always entertained the highest personal regard and friendship.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., July 19.—In the circuit court Thomas M. Wood has been appointed receiver for the firm of Lee & Ballinger, clothiers. The appointment was made because Lee desires to wind up the firm's business.

Poison in the Bread.

GRAYSON, Ky., July 15.—A 12-year-old daughter of David Criswell, a farmer at Leon, Ky., died and all the members of the family are in a dangerous condition from poison put into the bread. There is no clue to the manner by which the bread was poisoned.

Died From His Injuries.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 18.—C. P. Will, a lumber dealer of this city, who was injured in a street car accident Saturday night, died Sunday morning from his injuries.

SECRETLY MARRIED.

Captured Her Sister's Sweetheart, Secured a Divorce and Now Marries His First Love.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 18.—It leaked out Sunday that Charles Wright, who was a soldier in the late war, had been secretly married at Jeffersonville by Magistrate Hulse to Miss Addie Lamaster. Wright was recently divorced from his first wife and thereby hangs a tale. Years ago he was engaged to marry his present helpmate, but the course of love did not run smoothly and they had a quarrel. Miss Nannie Lamaster, a sister of Addie's, appeared on the scene as a peacemaker. Wright was so charmed with the intermediary that he at once began a wooing that knew no failure. The other sister was forgot.

Finally he was successful and married Nannie. They lived together until Wright joined the army. When he returned from Cuba his wife was waiting for him and they seemed to be perfectly happy. Suddenly a squall arose and a suit for divorce was filed by the husband. It was granted and a week later he was joined in the tie that binds to his original sweetheart. What caused this remarkable sequel can not be learned. Strange to say, the sisters have always remained good friends. Wright, when he applied for enlistment in the army, was refused. Going to a barber he had his hair dyed, shaved off his beard and in a new suit of clothes again made application and was successful.

THE CLAY COUNTY BATTLE.

Gov. Bradley Has Not Decided on Any Plan With Reference to the Latest Outbreak—Authorities Criticized.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 19.—Gov. Bradley received full official particulars Tuesday night concerning the Clay county battle, in which Philpotts, Griffin, Morris and others were killed Monday and five were wounded. The governor is more than ever worried over Clay county affairs, but has not decided on any plans with reference to the latest outbreak.

There are very severe criticisms of the Clay county civil authorities, in state official circles at the state capital, and it is hinted that some of the judicial authorities in that district will be made the subject of rigid investigation by the legislature next winter which will have impeachment proceedings as its ultimatum object.

Sheriff Beverly White, of Clay county, who with his deputies are credited with belonging to one of the fighting factions, does not call on the state for assistance and objected to the governor sending troops to Manchester last month for the Baker trial.

Pardons for Magistrates.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 16.—Gov. Bradley Friday granted pardons to four Muhlenberg county magistrates. They were under indictment for alleged malfeasance in office. The specific offense consisted in having allowed the county judge a fee of $30 for certain work, which was in excess of the statutory allowance. Gov. Bradley, in granting the pardons, said the indictments were unjust and probably inspired by politics.

Lived on Herries and Snails.

PITTSBURG, Ky., July 19.—Albert Brooks was found in the woods near here by Alexander Patterson in a dying condition. Brooks claimed he has subsisted upon berries, snails and worms for 36 days. He says he entered the forest and got lost, and was unable to find his way out until he became so weak that he could not walk.

State Mill Destroyed by Fire.

VANCEBURG, Ky., July 17.—The large state mill at Garrard, ten miles east of here, in this county, belonging to W. J. Fells, of Huntington, W. Va., burned to the ground. The mill had not been running for some time and the fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Wanted to Die.

NEVER TOO OLD TO BE CURED.

S. S. S. Is a Great Blessing to Old People. It Gives Them New Blood and Life.

Age does not necessarily mean feebleness and ill health, and nearly all of the sickness among older people can be avoided. Most elderly people are very susceptible to illness, but it is wholly unnecessary. By keeping their blood pure they can fortify themselves so as to escape three-fourths of the ailments from which they suffer so generally. S. S. S. is thoroughly removing all waste accumulations, and imparting new strength and life to the whole body. It increases the appetite, builds up the energies, and sends new life-giving blood throughout the entire system.

Mrs. Sarah Pike, 477 Broadway, South Boston, writes: "I am seventy years old, and had not enjoyed good health for twenty years. I was sick in different ways, and in addition, had Eczema terribly on one of my legs. The doctor said that on account of my age, I would never be completely cured, and I am happy to say that I feel as well as I ever did in my life."

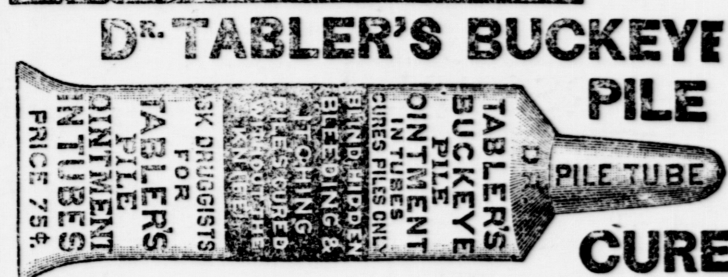

Mr. J. W. Loving, of Colquitt, Ga., says: "For eighteen years I suffered tortures from a fiery eruption on my skin. I tried almost every known remedy, but they failed one by one, and I was told that my age, which is sixty six, was against me, and that I could never hope to be well again. I finally took S. S. S., and it cleansed my blood thoroughly, and now I am in perfect health."

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD is the only remedy which can build up and strengthen old people, because it is the only one which is guaranteed free from potash, mercury, arsenic and other damaging minerals. It is made from roots and herbs, and has no chemicals whatever in it. S. S. S. cures the worst cases of Scrofula, Cancer, Eczema, Rheumatism, Tetters, Open Sores, Chronic Ulcers, Boils, or any other disease of the blood. Books on these diseases will be sent free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.
